

England Athletics AGM – Non Executive Director biography

Adetunji Akintokun MBE

AGM agenda item 6

Tunji Akintokun will, in accordance with the Code for Sports Governance, continue into his second four-year term of office effective from the 2023 AGM having already been recruited through a rigorous selection process in 2019.

Tunji is currently Senior Independent Director. He is also a member of the Audit & Assurance Committee and the Remuneration Committee.

Tunji has worked in global technology and professional services organisations for over 30 years and is currently a Senior Director at LinkedIn. He has previously held senior leadership positions at PwC and Cisco.

He is a trustee of England Athletics' Personal Best Foundation, a charity that helps children and young people underserved and underrepresented groups achieve their personal best on the track, at school and in life.

Tunji has also worked in a volunteer capacity on the councils of Teach First, techUK and Grant Thornton.

He supports his passions of sport, inclusion, STEM, the Arts and social mobility through his Ilesha Charitable Trust providing opportunities to individuals, charities and organisations.

A former top junior athlete, he was a torchbearer at the 2016 Summer Olympics in Rio and has run two London Marathons (2014 & 2017) raising over £7,000 for AbleChildAfrica.
