

England Athletics Road Running Representative Opportunity

Corsa di Castelli, 20th October 2024

Introduction

The European Under 23 Road Race at the annual Corsa di Castelli provides high quality road competition for England best under 23 athletes. The selected 10k England Teams will compete against other international teams from across Europe and the race has a huge pedigree in supporting athletes to transition to higher levels of competition and build invaluable experience of competition overseas in a team context.

Please read this selection policy carefully including the additional notes BEFORE you complete the expression of interest form.
