

Be part of a sport where everyone belongs...

...become an Athletics Official

What does being an official involve?

- Start races. Judge events. Make it happen.
- Measure record-breaking times, jumps and throws.
- Join a fantastic team of officials.
- Help athletes achieve their best.
- Opportunities to gain experience at events, no commitment necessary.

Without officials, competitions can't take place.

Three steps to become a Level 1 Official

1. Attend a Level 1 Officials course (Online or In-person), more info here.
2. Complete the online modules at anytime before or post course..
3. Complete an online DBS Check.

Continue your officiating journey

- Lots of training and support provided!
- Free resources to support your development.
- Have a positive impact, work in a team, keep fit and healthy, and make friends.
- Progress at your own pace along the officials' pathway, with the chance to officiate at top level events.
- Officials are key to the successful running of events!
